About Us

EIFERSTUDIO

Your Premier Turnkey Partner for High-End Luxury Interiors, Architecture, and Bespoke Furniture.

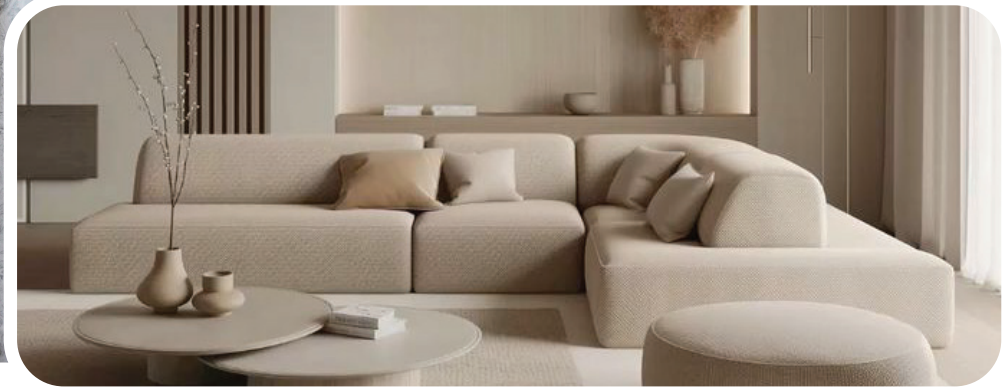

Design is about the way you live every single day, and at EIFERSTUDIO, we make sure it's beautiful. We believe that high-end luxury turnkey interiors and thoughtful architecture should make your life easier and more inspired. It's about the perfect fit of a bespoke furniture piece and the feeling of a home that finally clicks together. By bringing together clean European vibes with a real passion for getting the details right, we take the stress out of building your dream.

Our journey began in 2018, and ever since, we have been hand-crafting unique, ready-to-live spaces that reflect exactly who you are and where you're going

Why EIFERSTUDIO?

Most studios design. Few can execute.
We do both, under one roof.

- End-to-end turnkey solutions
- In-house manufacturing and upholstery
- Precision control on quality, timelines, and finishes

- Experience centre that lets clients see, touch, and decide
- Factory-backed execution

Mission

To deliver seamless high-end luxury turnkey interiors and architecture that bridge the gap between visionary design and effortless living.

Vision

To set a global benchmark in architecture, turnkey interiors, and furniture, shaping timeless environments that endure across generations.

Philosophy

Luxury is in the details:
Excellence is in the execution

The Alchemist

- As Founder, Neha Chandok defines the architectural soul of EIFERSTUDIO. With global expertise, she bridges the gap between technical precision and high-end luxury. Her design-led approach prioritizes both elegance and sustainability, ensuring every turnkey project is a balanced, world-class sanctuary shaped by her unique vision.

- As a Partner and the strategist behind the vision, Ingmar Stotz brings a unique global corporate pedigree to EIFERSTUDIO. An entrepreneur at heart, he bridges the gap between creative ambition and operational excellence, ensuring that every project is handled with world-class structure and precision. Under his leadership, your journey from the first thought to the final handover is seamless, transparent, and long-term.

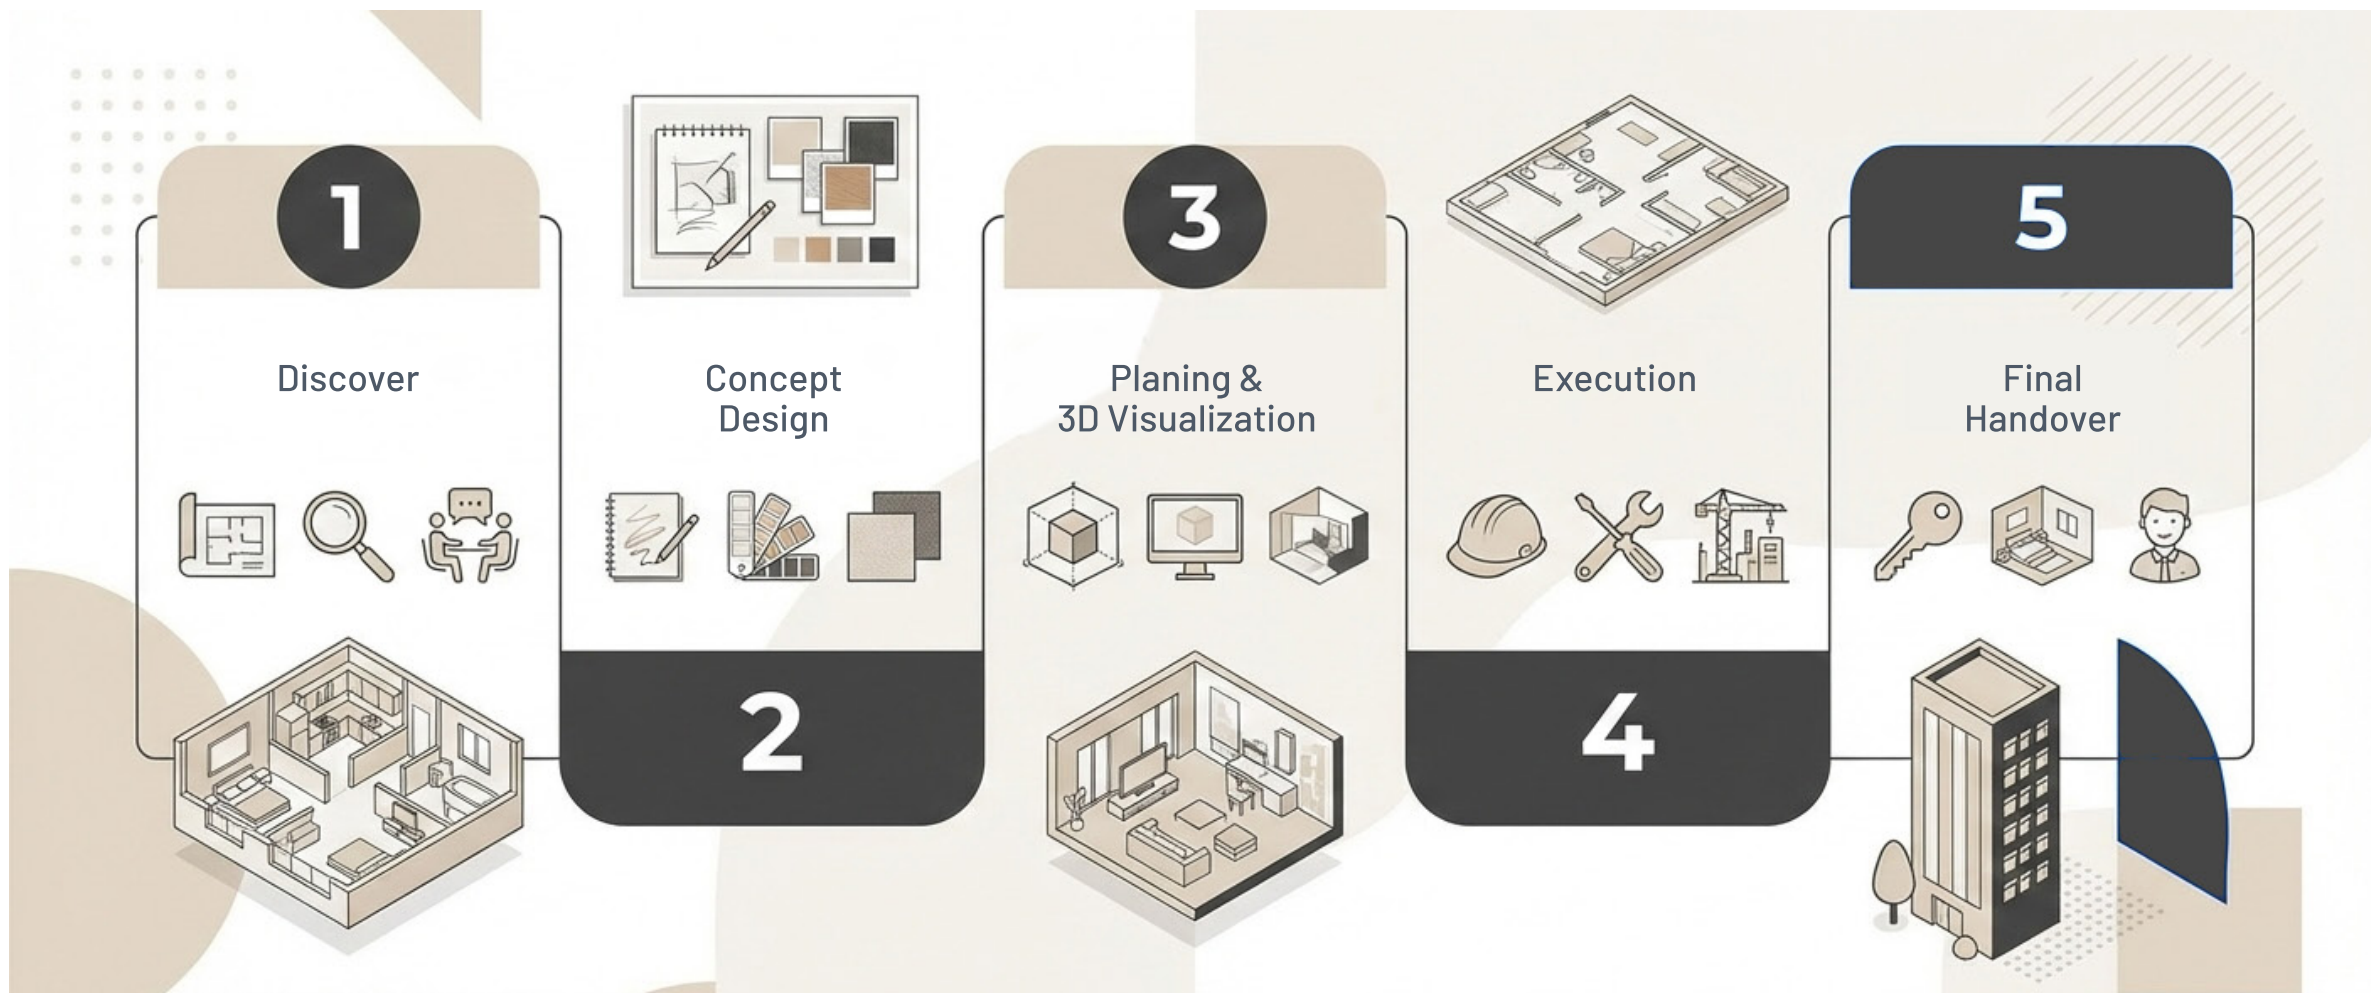

- With a background in Interior Design, she understands the soul of a project and translates it into a refined brand narrative. She is our "Alchemist"—transforming raw concepts into a clear, sophisticated identity. Because she knows the design process from the inside out, she ensures the heart of every project is felt long before you even step through the door.

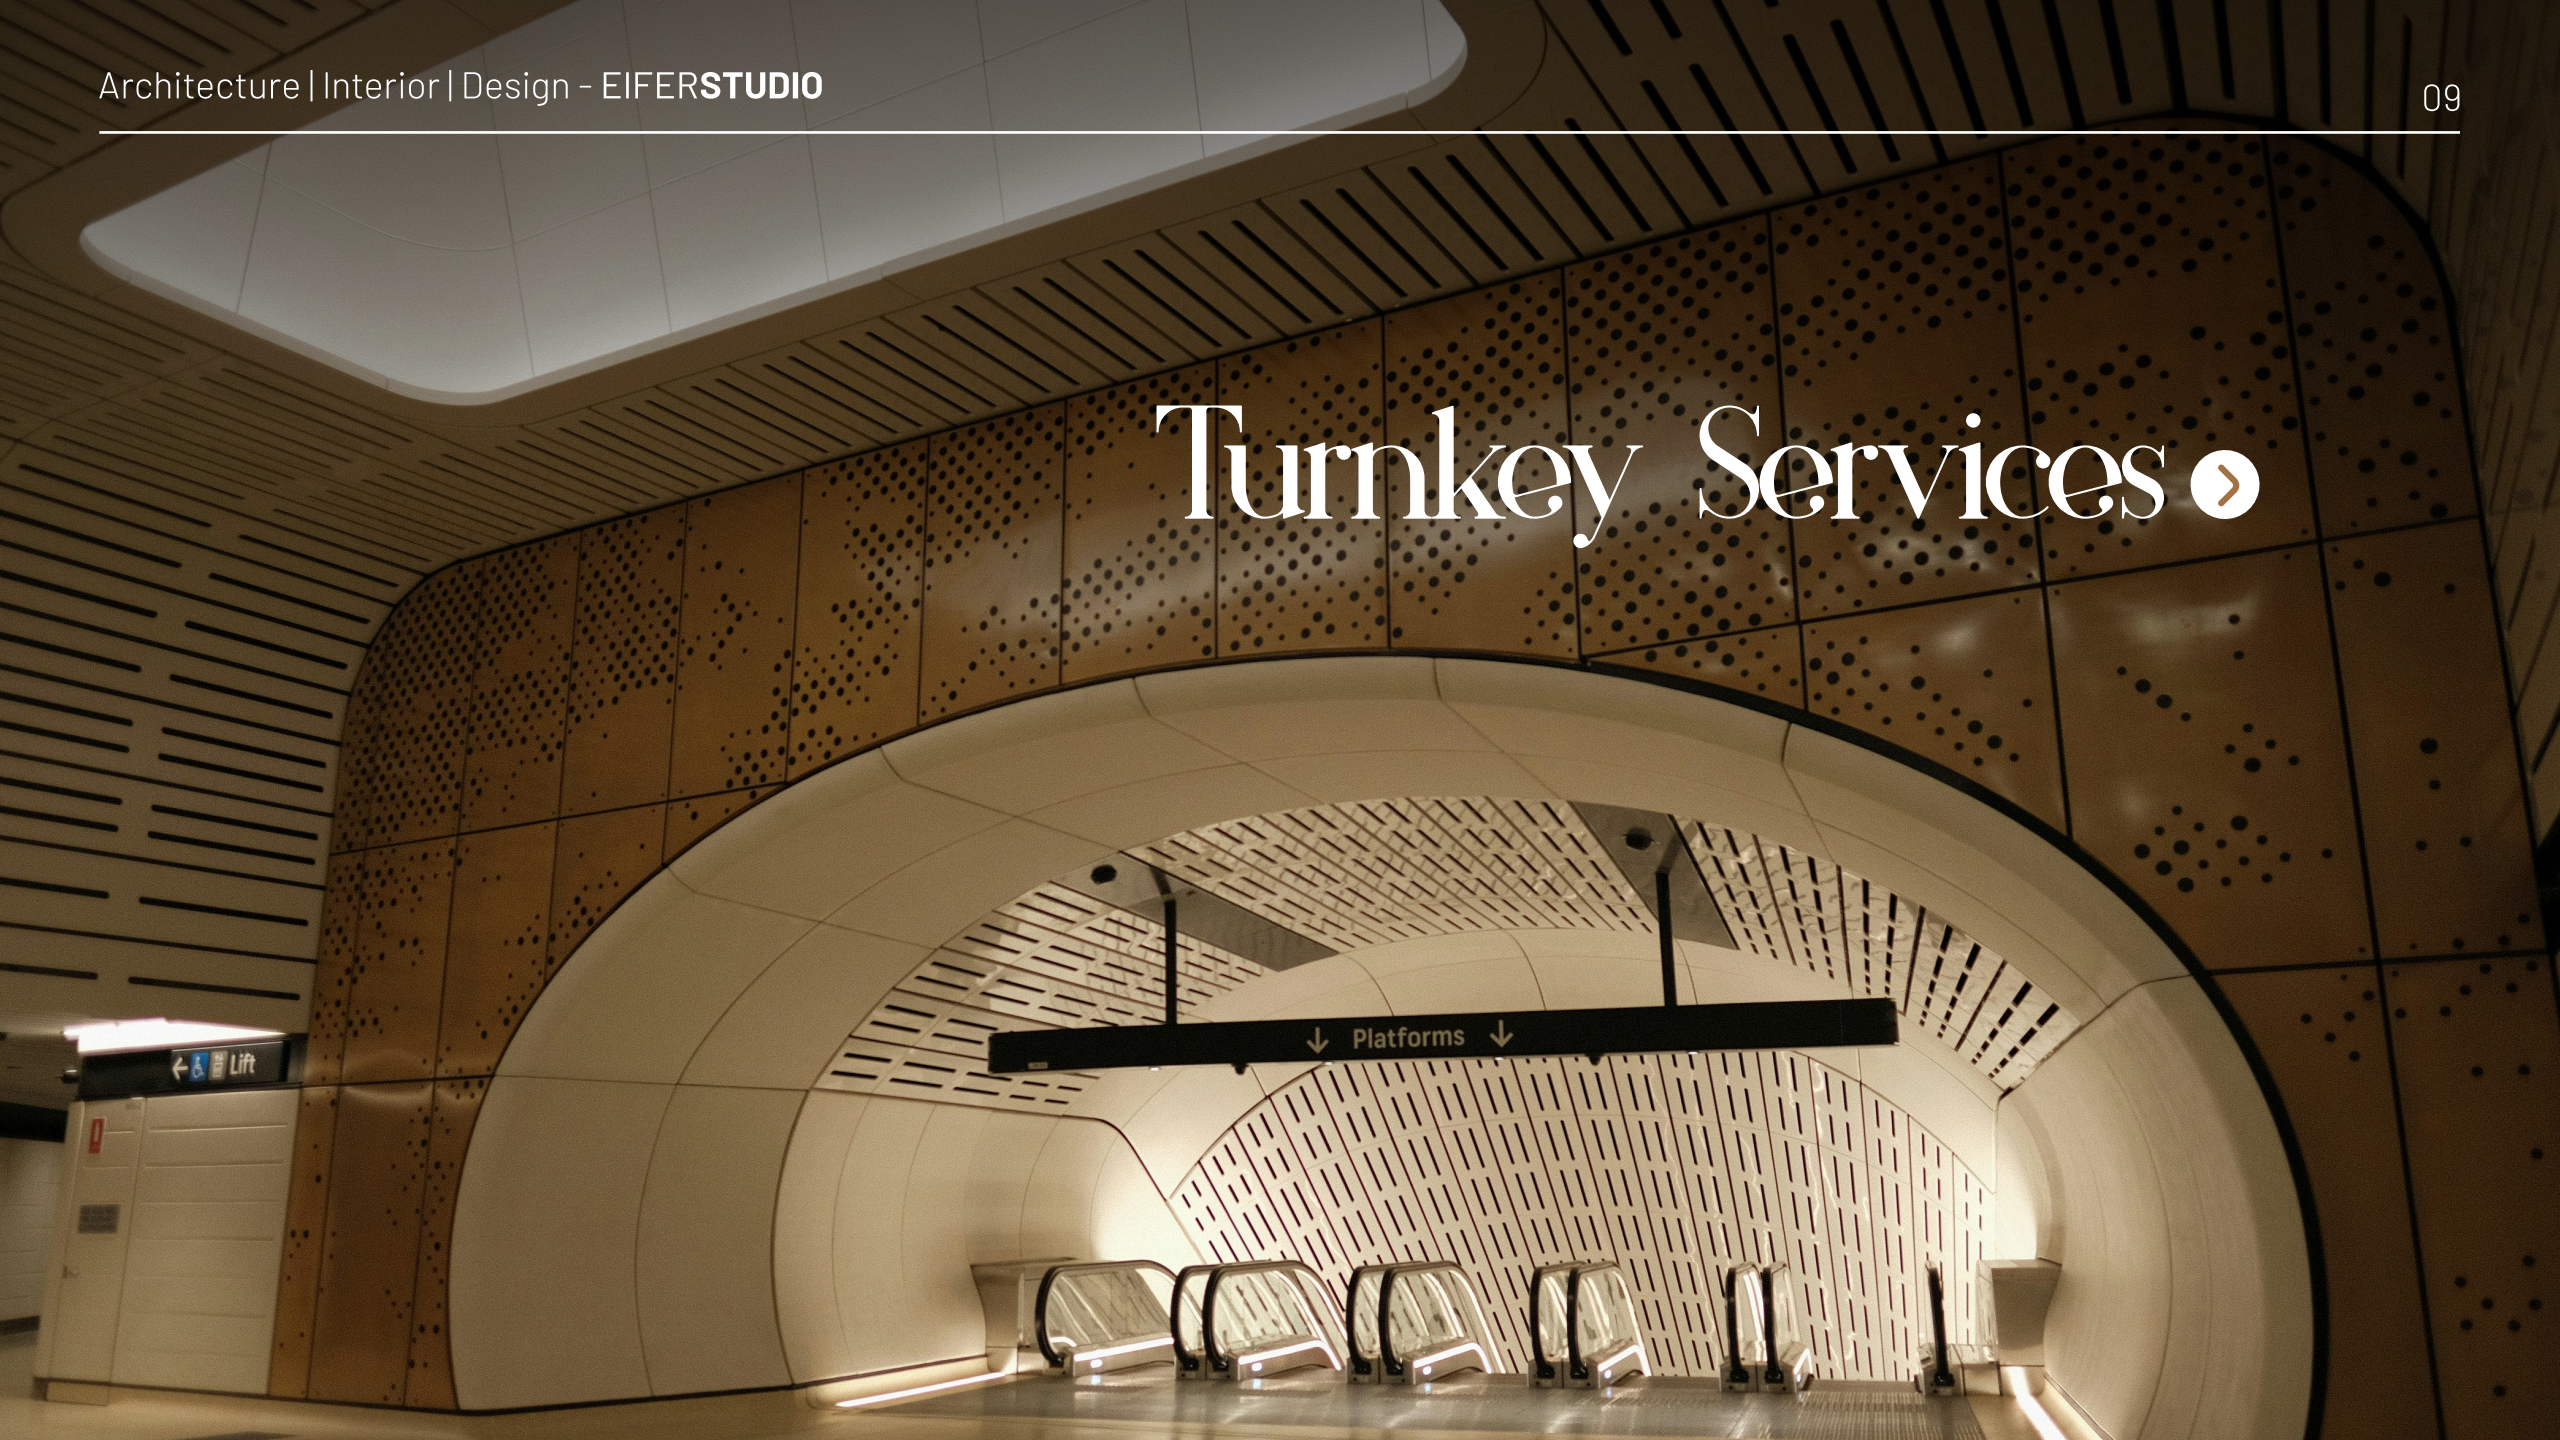

How
WE WORK?
